Homework Challenge Grid

Our topic this half term is 'Julia Donaldson Books.' Creative homework is a long term project designed for parents and children to work on together. We ask that you do the middle square and then two activities either side to form a straight or diagonal line. You should upload your creative projects to Tapestry wherever possible too!

We understand that for many families, time is limited, but please do make sure that you share a book/read with your child EVERYDAY.

I hope you have fun completing these challenges together!

The EYFS Team

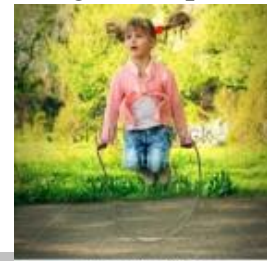

In the bath play with different beakers – compare the volume and talk about which holds most/least.

Create your own puppets and retell a story. Can you use good character voices?

Skip with a jump rope – count the number of jumps. Can you jump more times than your grown up?

Draw a treasure map and write some labels to show what each part is.

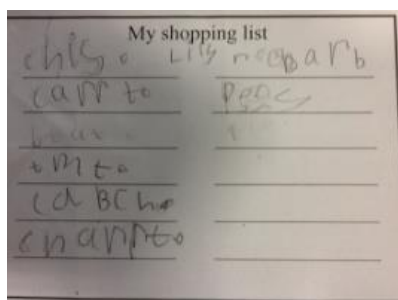

Draw a picture of your own story character. What could you call your character? Write their name underneath the picture.

Go for a walk in the woods – collect sticks and order them by their lengths – can you compare them.

Write a shopping list and go to the shop together.

Play a board game that uses a dice together.

Write a letter to someone you know and post it together.
